Divorced New York Woman Weds Secretly

"MEMPHIS, Feb. 20.-An announcement long delayed from motives of secrecy, was made to-day of the marriage of Mrs. Effe Lyle Whitney, formerly of New York, to Robert William Lee Johncon, of Louisville, Ky. The secrecy regarding the wedding, for which no reasoms are given, was carried to the extent of suppressing the license, takon out at the office of the County Clerk, as the law requires.

The nuptials were celebrated on Jan. so at the Second Presbyterian Church here, the pastor, the Rev. A. B. Curry, emoiating. There were present only a few members of the families of the contracting parties, among them a daughter of the bride by her first marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Memphis to-day for Mexico, where Mr. Johnson has mininterests. They were accompanied by Miss Whitney.

Mrs. Jehnson was once the wife of James Warham Whitney, a millionaire of Rochester and New York, and was a feader in the social life of Rochester and Buffalo, and later of Washington. Where her husband leased for several years a splendid home in Massachusetts avenue. The Whitneys lived only one year in New York, where they occupied their fine residence at No. 184 Riverside Drive.

To the astonishment of all. Mrs.

To the astonishment of all, Mrs. Whitney left her Washington home about five years ago and went to Tennesses to live. Recently she obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion, her husband having refused to follow her to Tennesses.

Mrs. Ross Laments Loss of Child She Registered at Bargain Sale.

Confusion over the identity of two bables in front of the Berlin depart-ment store. Willoughby avenue and Broadway. Brooklyn, caused intense exitement in the Police and Fire Departments for about three hours yesterday. Being a bargain day, there was a crush of infant equipages grouped along the sidewalk in front of the store. Little Jack Hand, who is in charge of the baby-checking department, had his hands full, and did not notice that a little girl who had been tending one of the infants outside had wheeled off the wrong tarriage.

Mrs. William Ross, who lives at No. 598 Marcy avenue, had no more than entered the store with the check for her baby in hand than along came little Plorence Johnson, of No. 1085 Lafuyette avenue, inspecting the toy display in

More Handkerchief Bargains.

The February Handkerchief Sale continues through Wednesday. The selling of Saturday and Monday and the astonishing bargains of Tuesday made great holes in the stock, but these have been filled up with fresh goods, and you can come here on Wednesday certain to find as good bargains as your neighbors got in the earlier days of the sale. Here are some of them:

Women's Fine Mil-Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiels, 60. A phenomenon in handkerchief selling. There are all widt hems in the lot.

Women's Swiss Embroidered Handkerchiels, 80. A few are mussed; the majority are perfectly fresh, new, crisp handkerchiefs. Women's Fine Sheer Hand-Embroidered Handkerchiefs, 9c.

All linen: unlaundered; hand-embroidered initial in fancy wreath; several styles in design. These handkerchiefs (when laundered) sell for 25c. each. Men's All-Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, So.

One-quarter, one-half and one-inch hems; also in this lot some very desirable colored borders. Men's Fine Trish Linen Initialled Handkerchiels, 121/20. These are full-laundered and hand-embroidered. Some are slightly soiled or with imperceptible flaws in the weaving; nothing to hurt except in the price, which would otherwise be double.

Men's 25e and 350 Handkerchiefs. Initialled, 17c.

Fine Irish linen; hand-made initials.
